

Goals of Diabetes

Eating & Sleeping Away From Home

I've been away from home on residential and school trips and an adult is always there to supervise and they help manage my diabetes.

I carry identification with me that lets people know that I have type one diabetes and that I need insulin.

