

Goals of Diabetes

Transition to Adult Services

When transferring to adult services it's important to work with your diabetes team and set goals together.

You'll start to see members of the team on your own without your parents or carer, and you'll be able to discuss any issues around consent and patient confidentiality with your diabetes team.

