

Goals of Diabetes

Illness

When you are ill, it is important to never stop taking insulin and frequently check your blood glucose levels and also check for ketones.

If you're feeling ill, you should contact a family member and or your diabetes team for assistance.

