

Goals of Diabetes

Hypoglycaemia

When I feel low, I tell an adult so that they can help me.

Then my glucose levels need to be checked, sometimes with a finger prick.

If I'm low, I'll need to take some glucose, and these can be tablets or a sugary drink.

And I may need a snack if I'm not having a meal soon or I'm about to do some exercise.

